Re: Competition

To all our Leavening School pupils

I will be running a competition for our final school term.

I am challenging all of you to be 'caught reading' and to send in photographic evidence. You could be 'caught reading' in your favourite reading spot, with a reading companion or somewhere rather different!

Please can all entries be sent in or emailed to admin@leavening.n-yorks.sch.uk by Friday 12th July, ready for the prize finale on the final week of term.

All teachers are being challenged to join in the competition too, which the year 6 children will be looking at, to decide who will get a prize!

I am really excited to see all of your amazing entries!

Yours sincerely

Mrs Raines

Remember, you can read anywhere!

This could be reading from a book, road signs or even the back of your cereal box!
