Synopsis

It's Christmas Eve and none of the children want to go to bed.
'Can we have a story?' they ask Mum and Dad ('Please tell us a story!' they beg.

What follows is a simple telling of the Nativity story through songs. The Nativity is acted out during the songs, after each of which the children ask 'What happened next?' Mum and Dad take the story forward into the next song, and so it goes on, until it really is time for bed!
